Assess your Information & Sources

Resource name: _________________________________________________________________

What kind of resource is this? Circle one: Academic encyclopedia, book, scholarly journal, trade publication, popular magazine, newspaper, educational film/video, or website

Article/page title: ________________________________________________________________

Currency

• How recent is the information?
• When was it published? If a website. How recently has the website been updated?
• Is it current enough for your topic? Explain.

Reliability

• What kind of information is included in the resource?
• Is content of the resource primarily opinion? Is it balanced?
• Does it include references or sources for data, claims, and quotations? Explain.

Authority

• Who is the author or creator?
• What are their credentials?
• Who is the publisher or sponsor?
• What is the publisher's interest (if any) in this information?

Purpose/Point of View

• Is the source: Informative? Opinion? Entertainment?
• What is its point of view?
• Is the creator/author trying to sell you something? Does it have ads?
• Who is the intended audience of this information?