Holman Library Program-Level Learning Outcomes

Librarians at Holman Library teach and assess information literacy across the curriculum.

Librarians will assess the following program-level learning outcomes for the information literacy instructional program at GRC.

Students will be able to…

- Identify the scope of their information need
- Access information effectively
- Evaluate the quality of the information
- Use, synthesize, or produce the needed information ethically